Rev Dr Tan Jin Huat:

Rev Dr Tan Jin Huat is currently the Academic Dean and CTEE Director.

He teaches Homiletics, New Testament and Malaysian Church History at Seminari Theoloji Malaysia. He is an Anglican minister.

He studied theology at Trinity College, Bristol, the London School of Theology (BA), the University of Aberdeen (MTh) and the Oxford Centre for Mission Studies / University of Wales (PhD).

'Preacher, Prepare Yourself' is a book on preaching which he has written.

COURSE DESCRIPTION

The New Testament has a rich corpus of different books. This course seeks to focus on the distinctive features, structure and themes on a selection of the NT books. The task of understanding the NT is enhanced by having some background knowledge of the world of the first Christians. Students will focus the message of the different NT books with the aim of enriching their understanding of these books so as to help them in their ministry in the Church.

COURSE CONTENT

At the end of the course, you will be able...

- ❖ To have a good grasp of the content of selected NT books and to appreciate their distinctive character, purpose and message, using different ways of understanding the themes of the NT books.
- ❖ To draw upon the findings of historical studies for NT studies and be aware of its value. This means an appreciation of how the world of the first Christians has a bearing on interpreting the NT documents.
- ❖ To relate the distinctive messages of the NT books to the life of the Church today.
