Ms Ho Gaik Kim

Ms. Ho Gaik Kim is a Full-time Faculty member and the Chapel Warden of Seminari Theoloji Malaysia.

Her area of studies include Biblical Studies, Church History and Bahasa Malaysia.

She studied theology at Regent College, 1989 (MTS). She is a member of the Trinity Annual Conference, The Methodist Church in Malaysia

This is a 3 credit hour course that is a basic introduction to Christian ethics. It will deal with the question of “How do we make ethical decisions?” The relationship of spirituality and ethics will be examined.

We will begin with a moral philosophical approach, analyzing the various approaches adopted by different people on how to make ethical decisions and evaluating them. This will include dealing with various religious ethical traditions that are relevant to our society.

We will then go on to study how we can develop a Christian ethics based on God’s revelation. Some important issues in Christian ethics will also be examined.

There will also be discussion on some ethical issues based on the book Mere Morality.

Course Fees : RM270.00 (3 Credit Hours)

RM135.00 (Audit)
