

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Abstract	2
Acknowledgements	3
List of Abbreviations	4
Table of Contents	5
1. Prolegomena	7
I. Calvin, Classical Philosophy and Providence	7
II. Predestination & Providence in the 1559 Institutes	15
2. Calvin's Controversies and the 1559 Institutes	25
I. Recent Assessments of the Contribution of Calvin's Controversies	26
II. A Re-assessment of the Contribution of Calvin's Controversies	31
III. A Neglected Aspect: The Locus Classicus in Context	38
3. The Knowledge of God the Creator and Providence	49
I. Inst. 1.1-2: Preliminary Discussion of the Duplex Cognitio Dei and Providence	51
II. Inst. 1:3-15: Further Discussion of the Duplex Cognitio Dei and Providence	62
III. Conclusion	79
4. Calvin on the False Views of God the Creator	81
I. Scripture and the False Views of God	84
II. Concrete and Imaginative Idolatry	93
III. Idolatry, Creation and Providence	100
IV. Conclusion	122
5. Calvin on Scripture and the Knowledge of God	127
I. The Hermeneutical Problem in Context	132
II. The Perspicuity of Scripture	138
III. Faith, Piety and the Knowledge of God the Creator	156
IV. Calvin's Hermeneutics and Divine Providence	176
V. Conclusion	187
6. The Triune God of Providence	189
I. Calvin's Trinitarian Concern Re-visited	191
II. Providence within a Trinitarian Rubric	203
III. The Christological Emphasis and Providence	207
IV. Conclusion	225

7. Barth on Calvin and Providence	228
I. Why Karl Barth?	228
II. Barth on Calvin and the Definition of Divine Providence	231
III. Barth on Calvin and the Divine Concursus	238
IV. Did Barth Misread Calvin?	243
Appendix A	254
Appendix B	256
Appendix C	257
Appendix D	258
Bibliography	259