Race Relations: Biblical Response*

A course designed to develop a Biblical Theology for race/ethnic relations with special reference to the Malaysian context.

Diversity is complementary rather than conflict and this presents a challenge for the Malaysian Christian community (Church) to become bridge builders for better harmonial relationships.

- Lecturer: Rev Dr Joseph Komar, a pastor/teacher holding a PhD in Missiology who has a passion for the broken world.

* This is a two credit hours course for 14 Tuesday nights. Registration is required by 4 June, kindly use the Part-time Enrollment 2015 available on STM website. Further details regarding registration, kindly liaise with the contact person at the Academic Office.
