COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course is a study of OT prophets and prophecy through the three major periods of the history of Israel – pre-exilic, exilic and post-exilic. Some critical issues like the role of prophets, the prophetic experience, true and false prophecy and what happened to prophecy in the post-exilic period will be covered. The book of Isaiah will be the main text, touching on key areas like the question of author-ship and unity, formation of the books, and message and theology of the different parts. The book of Isaiah will be studied according to the different historical backgrounds. Certain key passages will be selected for exegetical studies.

Closing Date: 10 June 2015

- STM 2015 Budget: We need donations of RM3.1 million.
