Under pre-class assignment and required reading.
For Interpreting OT Books (Ruth / Esther)

- Both chapters are available online on Google Books. Search under book title and Vanhoozer.
  - A summary of the approach and aims of the book
  - Your critical response to the chapters. You can consider things such as, but not limited to,
    - Whether the chapter achieved the aims of the book
    - Good aspects of the chapters, what you found helpful
    - Areas for improvement
    - What could have been included but wasn’t
    - Your critique of the approach of the book, as found in the chapters
    - Interpretations of Ruth and Esther you disagreed with, or found unclear

Make sure you use examples from the book to support your points, and include page references. Also include your evaluation of the book overall.

Due: 26 August 2015 (first day of class; 25%)